- A near conjunction of transiting Pluto with natal Pluto that will last most of this fall indicates that we are still undergoing transformation and facing threats to our democracy. So far, we've seen this manifest as chaos in the House of Representatives and renewed threats or insinuations of violence from Trump and his supporters. Also, the recent waves of strikes reflect not only the rebelliousness of Pluto but they also foreshadow what we may see when Pluto moves back into Aquarius in January and power continues to shift from individuals to the people.
- An ongoing square from the transiting Lunar Nodes to natal Moon and Mercury will likely intensify people's thoughts and feelings this month. Many may feel additional stress.
- The Sun and Moon will be opposite natal Chiron at the time of the October 14th Solar Eclipse. This will elevate the chances of wounding for the country this month, and wounding could come through political activity, climate change, Donald Trump's situation, or other mechanisms. Additionally, several midpoints involving either Mars, Pluto, or Chiron will be activated this month, and that could further exacerbate negative situations. However, if we focus on kindness to ourselves and to each other, then we can tilt the scales more toward healing and away from sorrow.
- There will also be several good aspects this month involving transiting Neptune, Jupiter, and Saturn. Hence, there will be some who are both compassionate and inspired, we will likely experience some beneficial growth and expansion from Jupiter, and Saturn will provide some steady discipline and control in ways that will be beneficial.
- With transiting Jupiter in Taurus quincunx natal Saturn in Libra during the Solar Eclipse, the need for a compromise solution on budget issues will likely continue to be in the news for awhile.
- With transiting Uranus semisextile both Chiron in Aries and Mars in Gemini and with Chiron and Mars sextile one another in the natal chart, some may experience sudden breakthroughs in insight and individual spirituality this month.
