THE WORLD

t. Pluto opposite t. Mars (1 deg orb)

Jan 1 – Jan 5

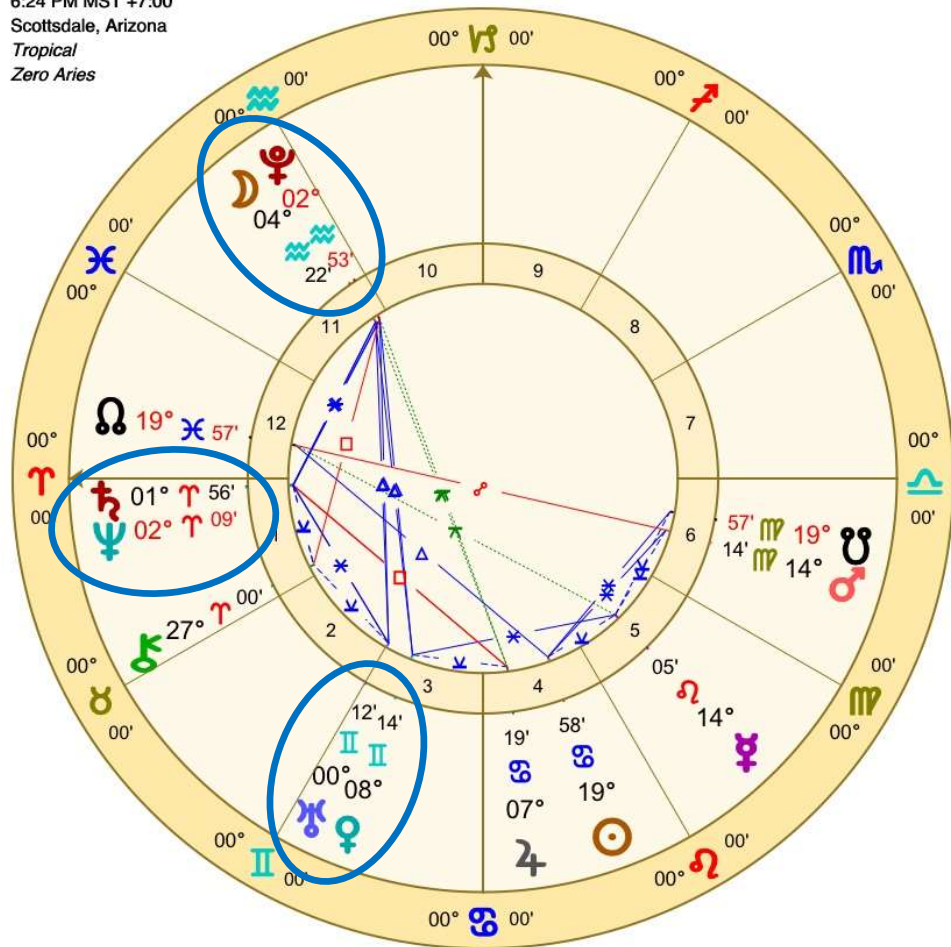

Apr 25 – Apr 28

Actually, I don't consider these transits all that serious since they only last a few days. However, during these days both energy and anger may be elevated. The previous opposition between Mars and Pluto was on 3 November 2024, but a difference is that Pluto was in Capricorn back then. With Pluto now in Aquarius, the trend is for power to shift from individuals to the people, and I think we're already seeing this influence in America's senate where the Republican senators are not automatically signing off on all of the appointments that President-elect Trump wants to make. Thus, this time around it is a conflict between energy/action/anger (Mars) and various groups that hold the keys to power (Pluto). Again, in America, this may manifest as more opposition to actions taken by Trump.

In the 9-month period from November 2024 through July 2025, all of the traditional outer planets, Jupiter through Pluto, will change signs, and on 11 July 2025, there will be a mini-grand trine with Pluto, Moon, Saturn, Neptune, Uranus, and Venus, and Saturn and Neptune will be about as close to a conjunction as they will get in 2025

t. Saturn semisquare t. Pluto (1 deg orb)

Jan 11 – Feb 8

There will be some irritation and tension during this period between those who want power and those who want to control and regulate power. There may also be some destruction of infrastructure or regulations and control mechanisms. For example, we may see in this period battles between the efforts of Elon Musk to drastically reduce federal spending and legislators who have other priorities.

t. Neptune conjunct t. Saturn in Aries (1 deg orb)

Jun 9 – Aug 23

Saturn represents structure while Neptune dissolves structures. When they come into conjunction, we usually see new ideologies emerge, and sometime this plays out literally such as when we saw the structure of the Berlin Wall literally dissolve before our eyes. The next conjunction of Saturn and Neptune is on 20 February 2026 and the two planets will be within 1 degree of conjunction from 8 February 2026 to 4 March 2026. In the summer of 2025, we won't have an exact conjunction between these two planets, but they will be within 1 degree of exact for a longer period of time from 9 June 2025 to 23 August 2025. Thus, the period this summer may be more important than the exact conjunction in 2026, and at least, it should foreshadow what will be coming on 20 February 2026.

The Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine will be strong from August 12 to October 6, and Saturn will be part of this configuration (1 deg orb) on August 12. This configuration in fire and air signs will usher in a higher vibration and new perspective for the planet. Technology, clever thinking, and independence will be emphasized. I don't know exactly how the world will change or if change will happen gradually or suddenly, but we are turning a huge page. There will be an extended period from July 11 through December 17 during which people will be opening up to new perspectives.

The most beneficial day of the century might occur in July of 2026 when most of the outer planets find an extraordinary harmony with one another at 4 degrees of positive signs. This configuration is reminiscent of the conjunctions of Neptune, Uranus, and Pluto that ushered in major world religions and philosophies around 576 BCE.

Prog. Jupiter square n, Saturn (1 deg orb)
all year round

Progressed Jupiter first formed a square to natal Saturn in 2009 as Obama became president. We often see this aspect as representing a tension between growth and regulation, but it can also be seen as a political tension between progressives and conservatives. This aspect will be strongest for the next three years (2025-2027), so it might continue to be a bumpy ride for America in the immediate future.

Jul 6 – Aug 4

In all July 1776 charts for America there is a square between Neptune and Mars which represents how illusion, disinformation, and misinformation can often affect our march to action, inflamed passions, and possible violence. This natal square will be repeatedly stimulated in 2025 from February to August, and that could make the year quite contentious or even violent for Americans. There is also a heightened risk for accidents and false information of all sorts.

Neptune was squaring Venus at the start of the American Civil War. Hence, all of these squares to Venus from January 1 through September 21 could stir up discontent due to competing systems of values in America.

America has a Saturn/Chiron opposition in its chart with Saturn in Libra and Chiron in Aries. At its best, America incorporates the spiritual worth and dignity of each individual (Chiron in Aires) into the structure of its relationships with others (Saturn in Libra).

But at its worst, America seeks to control others, both within and without, and often winds up wounding other countries and people. Unfortunately, that Saturn/Chiron opposition will be stimulated almost constantly throughout the year, and while spiritual transcendence is possible and may be experienced by a few, for the masses a less positive outcome is more likely. Thus, I'm expecting political and economic wounding at the very least. The last time America experienced transits like these was in the mid-seventies right after Nixon resigned. That period was marked by two assassination attempts on President Gerald Ford and extremely high inflation. By the end of the year, we may be asking ourselves if we are better off now than we were just a year ago under a Democratic president.

Comparison Chart

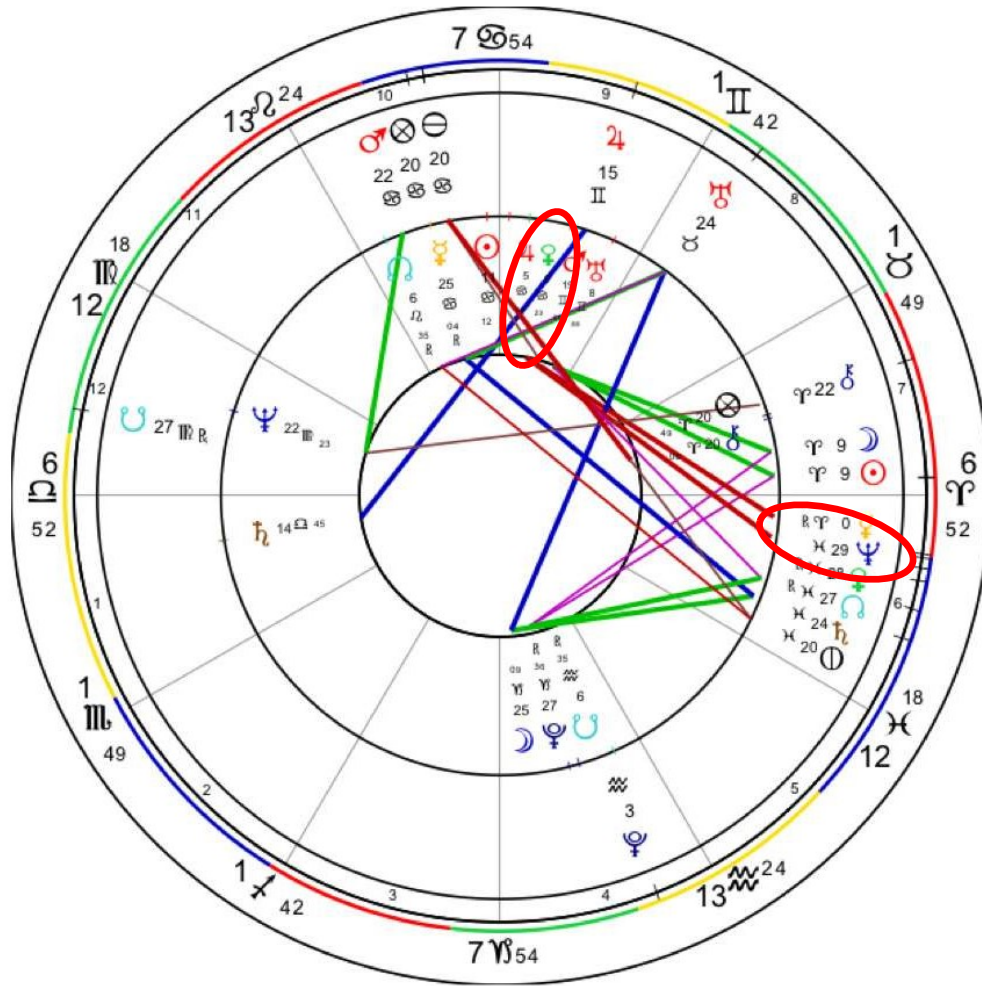

The July 2, 1776 chart for America and the March 14, 2025, Lunar Eclipse

Notice that the Sun and Saturn are strongly conjunct in this eclipse. Thus, this may be a year of restriction and shortages for the world just as the April 8, 2024, solar eclipse with an exact conjunction of Sun, Moon, and Chiron brought a year of wounding to the world.

America will be particularly affected because of the strong opposition of Saturn to America's Neptune. This could result in disinformation, a crackdown on forms of expression deemed too unusual, or even violence as America's Neptune/Mars square will be stimulated

The July 2, 1776 chart for America and the March 29, 2025, Solar Eclipse

In this eclipse chart, transiting Neptune is square America's natal Venus. This could be ominous because Neptune is almost exactly where it was at the start of the American Civil War, and the impact of this square will be intensified by the eclipse. America is already very divided politically, and this eclipse could be a tipping point of sorts.

Comparison Chart

The July 2, 1776 chart for America and the September 7, 2025, Lunar Eclipse

In this eclipse chart, both transiting Neptune and Saturn are square America's natal Venus, and this reiterates the ominous echoes of the American Civil War that were seen in the previous eclipse chart. Moreover, transiting Mars is opposite America's Chiron, and this could trigger wounding through violence in America. Or other Martian things such as accidents or fires could occur.

TRUMP

Prog. Venus square n. Saturn and n. Venus (1 deg orb)

all year round

Prog. Mars conjunct n. Chiron (1 deg orb)

all year round

Trump has Saturn conjunct Venus in his 11th House, and Venus is the ruler of his 10th House. Thus, the one area where Trump has shown discipline has been in his efforts to either collaborate or control others in the pursuit of his own success. However, with progressed Venus square his natal Saturn, his beliefs and values are now at odds with whatever inner discipline he has. A negative scenario would be a president who appears out of control as he pursues a vindictive agenda.

Trump will not only have progressed Mars conjunct Chiron this year which could result in physical wounding, accidents, and anger, but his natal Chiron is also conjunct Saturn to the degree in all of the July 1776 charts. Thus, just as he did in his first presidency, Trump may continue to wound the structure of American democracy and relationships with allies (Saturn in Libra). However, due to the conjunction with progressed Mars, his efforts this time around may contain more anger and aggression. Also, while many will see Trump's actions as destroying the structure of our country, his supporters will likely see this as "draining the swamp." Either way, I think that this year will see a lot of structural change for America as a result of Trump's actions.

Solar Arc Neptune conjunct n. South Node and n. Moon (1 deg orb)

all year round

Solar Arc Pluto square n. Venus (1 deg orb)

all year round

Solar Arc Midheaven conjunct n. Pluto (1 deg orb)

all year round

As a result of the conjunction between solar arc Neptune and the natal South Node and Moon, we will probably see Trump often acting from a place of delusion and misinformation and doing the same things he's done in the past. Also, since Venus rules his 10th House, solar arc Pluto square his natal Venus and solar arc Midheaven conjunct his natal Pluto suggest some sort of radical transformation in his status. These changes could range from assignation to having a stroke to going to jail or even to declaring himself a dictator for life, among other possibilities. In other words, I don't know exactly how this will play out, but I am expecting some sort of transformation of status, and one possible outcome that would be less severe would be maneuvering by Trump to increase and consolidate the power of his presidency.

t. Uranus conjunct n. Midheaven (2 deg orb)

Oct 19, 2024 – May 1

The Midheaven/10th House always has to do with a person's status in society, and Uranus always breaks up the existing pattern. Trump may be an erratic leader during this period. This aspect will play into the indications of changes to his status as shown by the solar arc progressions. There will be changes, but the question is will those changes be good or bad? Trump, himself, has indicated that he likely wants to greatly expand the power of the president to make decisions unilaterally.

Jan 16 – Feb 22

t. Pluto sesquiquadrate n. Uranus (1 deg orb)

Trump will experience several favorable aspects from March through May and September through December to his Midheaven, his 10th House Sun and Uranus, and the ruler of his 10th House (Venus) and Saturn which is in conjunction with his Venus. Thus, despite some difficult transits this year, he will receive several beneficial lifelines which may allow him to emerge unscathed as was the case in 2024.

Trump will also have several favorable transits from transiting Jupiter and Chiron that will help him throughout the year and the summer months, too.

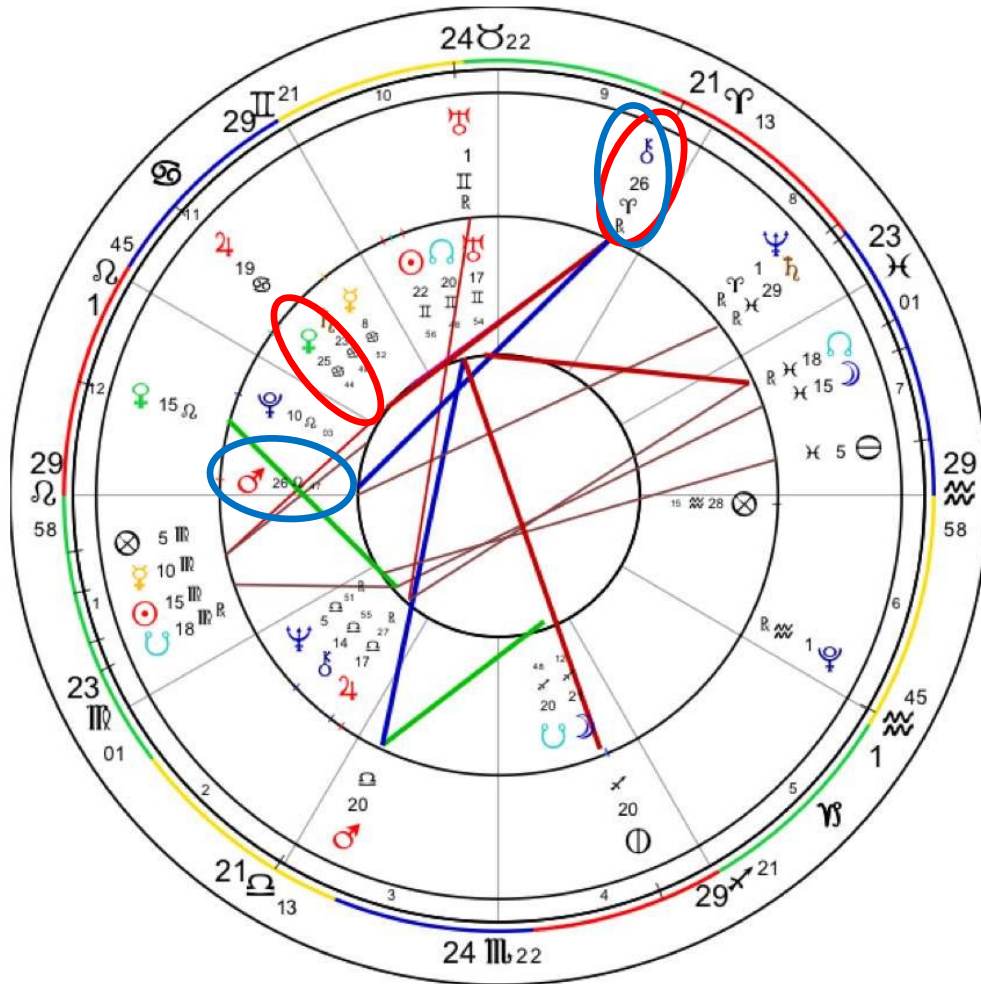

Comparison Chart

Donald Trump and the March 29, 2025, Solar Eclipse

At the time of the March 29 Solar Eclipse, the square from transiting Sun/Moon to his natal Mercury can cause some difficulties with either rational thought or communication. Also, transiting Uranus is still conjunct his Midheaven. However, transiting Jupiter trine natal Chiron, transiting Chiron trine/sextile natal Moon/Sun, and transiting Saturn trine natal Saturn will help to bring Trump luck, healing, and stability in the months following this eclipse.

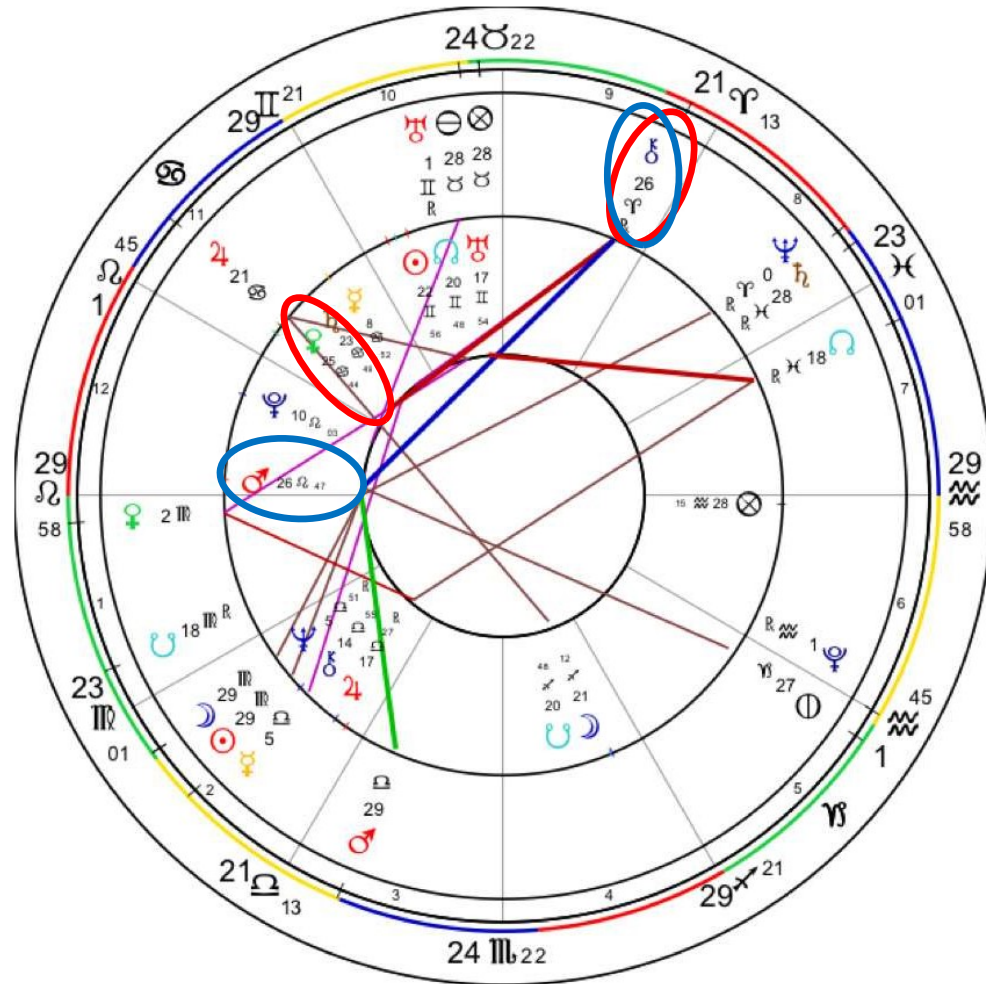

Comparison Chart

Donald Trump and the September 7, 2025, Lunar Eclipse

At the time of September 7 Lunar Eclipse, the square from transiting Chiron to his natal Venus will likely wound his reputation in some way. However, the trine from transiting Chiron to natal Mars that is close to his Ascendant will help to heal all wounds.

Comparison Chart

Donald Trump and the September 21, 2025, Solar Eclipse

At the time of September 21 Solar Eclipse, there will still be a square from transiting Chiron to his natal Venus and a trine from transiting Chiron to natal Mars, close to his Ascendant. Hence, he will again experience some wounding to his reputation along with personal healing.

CONCLUSIONS

For the world, 2025 is going to be a year of extraordinary change. All of the traditional outer planets have recently changed or will change signs, and the Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine will gain strength in July and August. We are also seeing ongoing shifts of power from individuals to the people as a result of Pluto now being firmly in Aquarius for the next 20 years. The most recent example as I write this is the collapse today of the dictatorial government in Syria. Around the globe people will be experiencing changes in perspective and a yearning for freedom. However, Pluto in Aquarius has also begun to show its dark side through concerns about how artificial intelligence may be misused and with the rise of “deep fakes.” Nonetheless, we are likely at the start of major advancements in energy technology, biotechnology, and information technology. Also, while for many people, 2025 will be the beginning of the birth of a new world, Russia and America will probably face their own challenges due to the near-conjunction of Saturn and Neptune at the beginning of Aries. This conjunction will be exact at the beginning of Aries on 20 February 2026, and since this occurs at the very beginning of the zodiac, it represents the start of a major change in philosophies and structures that will last for a very long time to come.

For America, 2025 will be a challenging year. Divisions between progressives and conservatives may peak over the next three years due to the strength of progressed Jupiter square natal Saturn, and the Saturn/Neptune near-conjunction will likely affect America more than usual given the tense solar arc aspects involving Saturn and Neptune (square and sesquiquadrate). Furthermore, given Trump's stated plans, it seems likely that America will see major changes in its structure and philosophy. Civil conflict and wounding in some form are very likely for America this year, and there is always the chance that we'll see an escalation in violence. A chance but not a certainty. Plus, this year's eclipses promise a year of some frustration, over-regulation or oppression, and/or scarcity not only for America but for the whole world. However, a series of beneficial aspects for America will ameliorate some of the worst aspects as many Americans will adopt newer and more transcendent perspectives, and the economy could innovate and stabilize. America may see its power in the world enhanced in 2025, but remember that power can be used for evil as well as for good. What choices America makes remain to be seen.

For Trump, 2025 will bring him not only several bad aspects that result in wounding and frustration but even more good aspects at the same time. He will likely experience some pushback to his more radical agendas, but several beneficial aspects from Jupiter and Chiron to his 10th House and related planets will probably result in him winning several of these confrontations. Thus, I estimate that perhaps 75% of his agenda will be implemented. Plus, with his progressed Mars conjunct his natal Chiron which is conjunct natal Saturn in the July 1776 charts for America, the one thing that seems for certain is that Trump will actively change the structure of American government and its society. I am anticipating a tremendous amount of wounding to America and its democracy, but in the eyes of his followers, it will only be draining the swamp and getting rid of the so-called deep state. Overall, there are some individuals and industries that will thrive over the next four years, but if Trump gets his way with what he promised during his campaign, then several other segments of American society will probably suffer terribly. It's always possible, though, that Trump, too, may evolve and only implement positive changes, but while I hope for that, I won't hold my breath.
