

BACK TO THE SIXTIES!

THE SYNODIC CYCLE OF URANUS AND PLUTO

In the summer of 2025, there will be a trine between transiting Uranus in Gemini and transiting Pluto in Aquarius. However, to understand what will be going on with this aspect, we need to go back in time, back to the 1960s when Uranus and Pluto were last in conjunction.

On October 8, 1965, there was a conjunction of Uranus and Pluto in the sign of Virgo. This was the primary driver of the social revolutions of the second half of the 1960s. Uranus breaks up patterns while Pluto transforms them, and all the detailed attention to social norms that Virgo represents went out the window. There were two more exact conjunctions in 1966, but we won't see another until 2104.

There was also a conjunction of Saturn and Chiron in Pisces on April 12, 1966, and this conjunction marked the rise of interest in eastern philosophies and meditative spiritual disciplines back in the sixties.

On April 10, 1995, we arrived at the first of five harmonious sextiles that stretched from 1995 until 1997. This period saw the initial development and spread of the Internet (Uranus in Aquarius) that quickly transformed into a type of global mind (Pluto in Sagittarius). Notice, too, that Uranus is at 0 degrees Aquarius, and this point is well charged since the 2020 Jupiter/Saturn conjunction occurred there, and Pluto spent several months there in 2023.

But then we experienced the first of seven waxing squares between Uranus and Pluto that lasted from 2012 until 2015. These squares were moments when the liberalism of the sixties was being revisited as people questioned whether this was the direction they really wanted to go. In America, this was the beginning of Obama's second presidential term, and we began to see a rise in conservatism that culminated in 2015 with Trump's famous ride down the elevator to announce his candidacy for president. Many people were turning their backs on the enlightenment of the sixties.

On July 17, 2026, Uranus in Gemini will form the first of five exact trines with Pluto in Aquarius that will occur between 2026 and 2028. Furthermore, at the same time Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto will form a very strong mini-grand trine. This configuration is reminiscent of conjunctions that occurred between these planets in 576 BCE, a time that saw the writing of the Torah and some of the Upanishads as well as the rise of major religions such as Taoism, Buddhism, and Confucianism, and the golden age of Greek philosophy.

This mini-grand trine will begin to form in the summer of 2025, and it won't begin to dissipate until 2029. Thus, it's influence will be very strong, and its influence will be felt beyond the exact Uranus/Pluto trines on July 17, 2026; November 29, 2026; June 15, 2027, January 12, 2028; and May 9, 2028.

In the summer of 2025, not only will the Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine be gaining strength but at the same time Saturn and Neptune will be within 1 degree of an exact conjunction with one another in Aries. This conjunction will become exact on February 20, 2026.

The near-conjunction of Saturn and Neptune, and, at the same time, a very strong Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine will be in effect throughout much of the summer of 2025. Thus, the summer of 2025 is when everything begins to change!

The Saturn/Neptune conjunction will be exact on February 20, 2026, and while the Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine won't be strong at this point, Saturn and Neptune will be very close to the exact midpoint between Uranus and Pluto. Thus, from summer of 2025 through February of 2026, the focal point will be to turn the higher visions (Neptune) of transformation (Pluto) and creativity (Uranus) into concrete reality (Saturn) through appropriate actions (Aries).

Additionally, what we will be going through is more than just the start of another Saturn/Neptune cycle. We are probably going to see the beginning of an approximately 6,000 year cycle of Saturn and Neptune being conjunct at the very beginning of the zodiac! The last time I believe something like this happened was in 4361 BCE, and that conjunction at the start of the zodiac signaled the start of historical civilization.

So what does all of this mean? In many respects, I have no idea and your guess is as good as mine. But in other respects, my guess may be better because whatever happens will likely conform to the meanings of the planets and the signs involved. Thus, let's start breaking it down.

Saturn creates structures while Neptune dissolve structures, and whenever they come into conjunction, we tend to see old structures dissolve and new social movements emerge. These new movements and beliefs can be either good or bad. Because the conjunction occurs in Aries, the emphasis is on action, independence, and individuality. At best, the dreams that Neptune and Saturn had while in Pisces will now be turned into concrete reality through action. But at worst, we will only see actions of war. We may also see a return of the liberalism of th 1960s. Either way, though, tremendous change is coming, and the summer of 2025 is when it all begins.

The Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine indicates a harmonious coordination between those drives that lead to higher and more transcendent thought. Since Pluto is in Aquarius, new and transformative technology will likely be involved, and since Uranus will be in Gemini, new, creative inventions are expected. Pluto and Uranus will feed each other in these endeavors, and Neptune in Aries will work to turn these transformative inventions into reality.

However, it may not necessarily be an easy road for humanity despite the favorable aspects. For example, there might be some sort of crisis related to Saturn and Neptune in Aries that winds up becoming the “mother of invention” for what follows. Also, Russia has a long history of big changes occurring whenever Saturn and Neptune are conjunct, and the last time Neptune was at the beginning of Aries, the American Civil War began. Plus, America has its own challenges coming up over the next few years, and I talk more about that in my video “The Inauguration of King Trump.” Hence, the road to this new future we are headed into may be quite bumpy at times.

In an attempt to cover all possibilities, I've tried to list below some various outcomes that run the gamut from worst to best.

- Just as the last Saturn/Neptune conjunction at 0 degrees Aries signaled the dawn of civilization, this upcoming conjunction could represent the end of civilization, the end of a grand experiment.
- A major crisis occurs that causes destruction for some but a new beginning for others.
- The Saturn/Neptune conjunction at the start of Aries may represent a major crisis for humanity, such as a tipping point in climate change. However, this time the creative forces of humankind may rise to the occasion and find solutions for our problems. And maybe space aliens will help us. 🙄 🙄
- Without a major, disruptive crisis, we, nonetheless, rapidly develop new technologies and inventions that change the structure of society and the world.
- And since the seed for what will happen was planted back in the sixties, we may enter a world of new technology that helps us realize many of the better dreams of that period.

So there you go. I don't know exactly what will happen, but I do know that we are living in a time of tremendous and rapid change. The bottoming of the Barbault Planetary Cycle Index, a cumulative sum of the distances between outer planets, along with an ominous lunar eclipse that was conjunct Saturn and Pluto at the start of 2020, allowed Andre Barbault to predict the likelihood of a major pandemic ten years before it happened. And this cycle index reached its absolute low for the century just a few weeks after Putin invaded Ukraine.

But this cycle index is now on the rise, and several outer planet synodic cycles are in their waxing or growth phase. Thus, no matter what happens, I remain optimistic, and I am hoping for the best. If we have the power to destroy an old world, then we also have the power to create a new world. Thus, now matter what, let's all commit to rise to the occasion and to treat one another with both dignity and kindness. And that's how you make a better world!
