

WHY THE STARS WILL BE MUCH HAPPIER IF
KAMALA HARRIS WINS
THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Do I know who will win the presidential election in America this November? No, I don't. And even if I utilize all the tools of astrology, I still don't know because all that astrology gives us is just a weather report. However, using that weather report, I can certainly make some determinations regarding the probability of a successful outcome for each candidate as well as the issues that each one may have to face as the election draws near, and by those measures many astrologers are saying that this may be a close election. However, our astrological weather report is only half the picture. The other half is how individuals around the country respond to that weather and also the choices that each candidate decides to make in response to those astrological influences. Those free-will choices are the part that astrology cannot predict, and so, no, I don't know who the next president of the United States of America will be. But I do hope that it will be Kamala Harris.

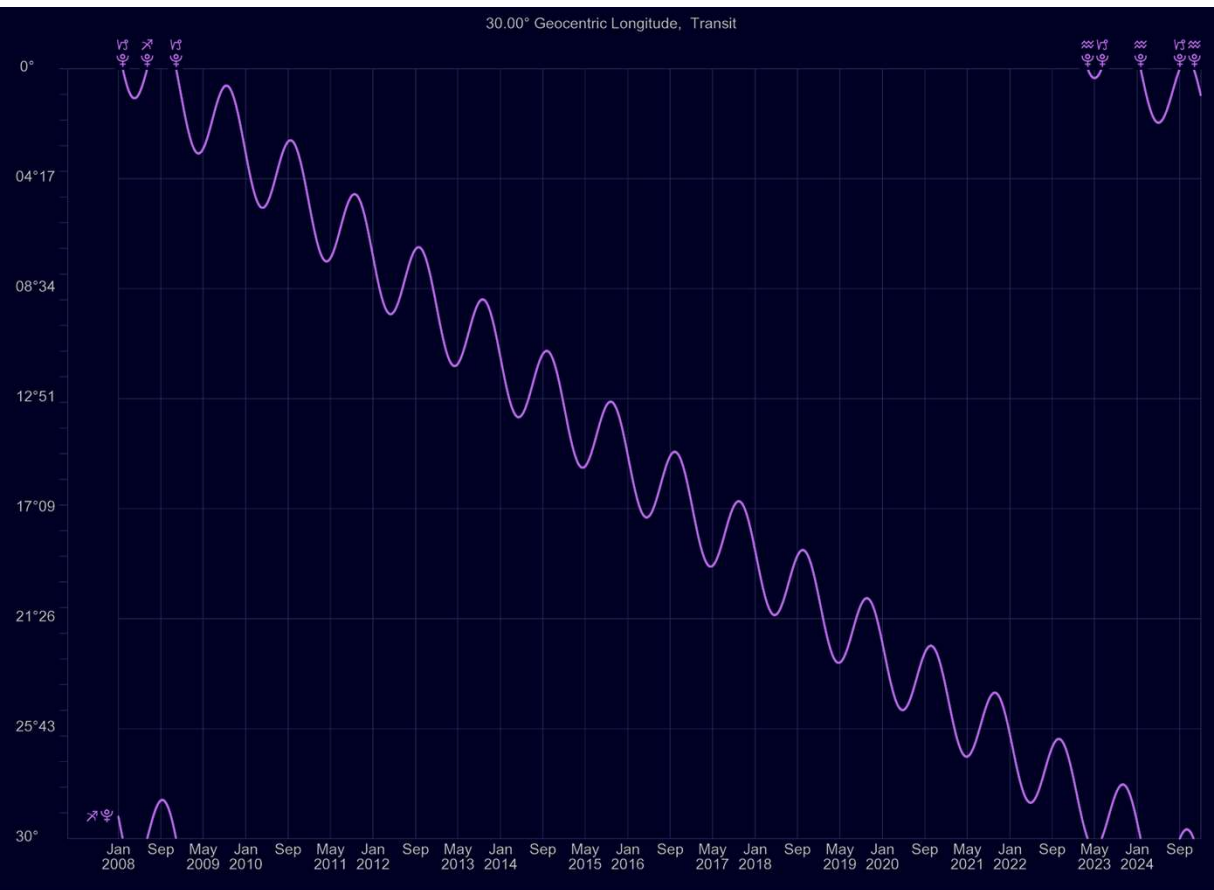

Additionally, I can state unequivocally that if the stars themselves could vote in elections, then they would also probably be in favor of electing “President Harris,” and there is a very simple reason for this. We are currently living in, and have been living in since 2020, a time of great change, and only one candidate, Kamala Harris, is pursuing an agenda that is aligned with the kind of future that we are currently hurtling towards, and that is why I say that the stars would be much happier if Kamala wins. Of course, it is also possible that Donald Trump will win, but if he does, I don’t think that he has the kind of forward-looking agenda that the times demand, and if he is elected, then I think America will be in for a lot of pain as he tries to take us in one direction while the winds of astrology are blowing in another. For instance, as climate change intensifies, it will make a lot of difference whether we have a president who understands the problem versus one who denies it.

And with that as an introduction, let's look at some of the outer planet conjunctions, sign changes, and aspects that are driving this time of change.

PLUTO IN CAPRICORN
2008 - 2024

With Pluto transiting through Capricorn from 2008 through 2024, there was the expectation that there would be transformations of structures and a rise in right-wing authoritarianism, and that has certainly taken place beginning with the collapse of the housing market in America, the invasions by Putin, the rise of both Victor Orban and Donald Trump, supply chain disruptions, and movements toward isolationism such as “America First” and “Brexit.”

Happily, the next journey for Pluto will be its sojourn through Aquarius that began in 2023 and continues until January 2044. While not everything will be beautiful during this period, we can count on an emphasis on technology, humanitarianism, and power shifting from individuals to groups.

With this January 10, 2020, Lunar Eclipse also closely conjunct the Saturn and Pluto, the late, great astrologer Andre Barbault foresaw in 2010 the possibility of a global pandemic emerging at this time. Two days after this eclipse, my wife and I contracted Covid while traveling through Great Britain, and the pandemic went on to affect everyone's life forever.

THE BARBAULT PLANETARY
2020 - 2022

The Barbault Planetary Cycle Index is a cumulative sum of the distances between the outer planets Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto. When the index is low, the outer planets are bunched close together and an imbalance is created. Barbault also foresaw a heightened possibility of a pandemic at the start of 2020 because this index was approaching its low for the entire century at that time.

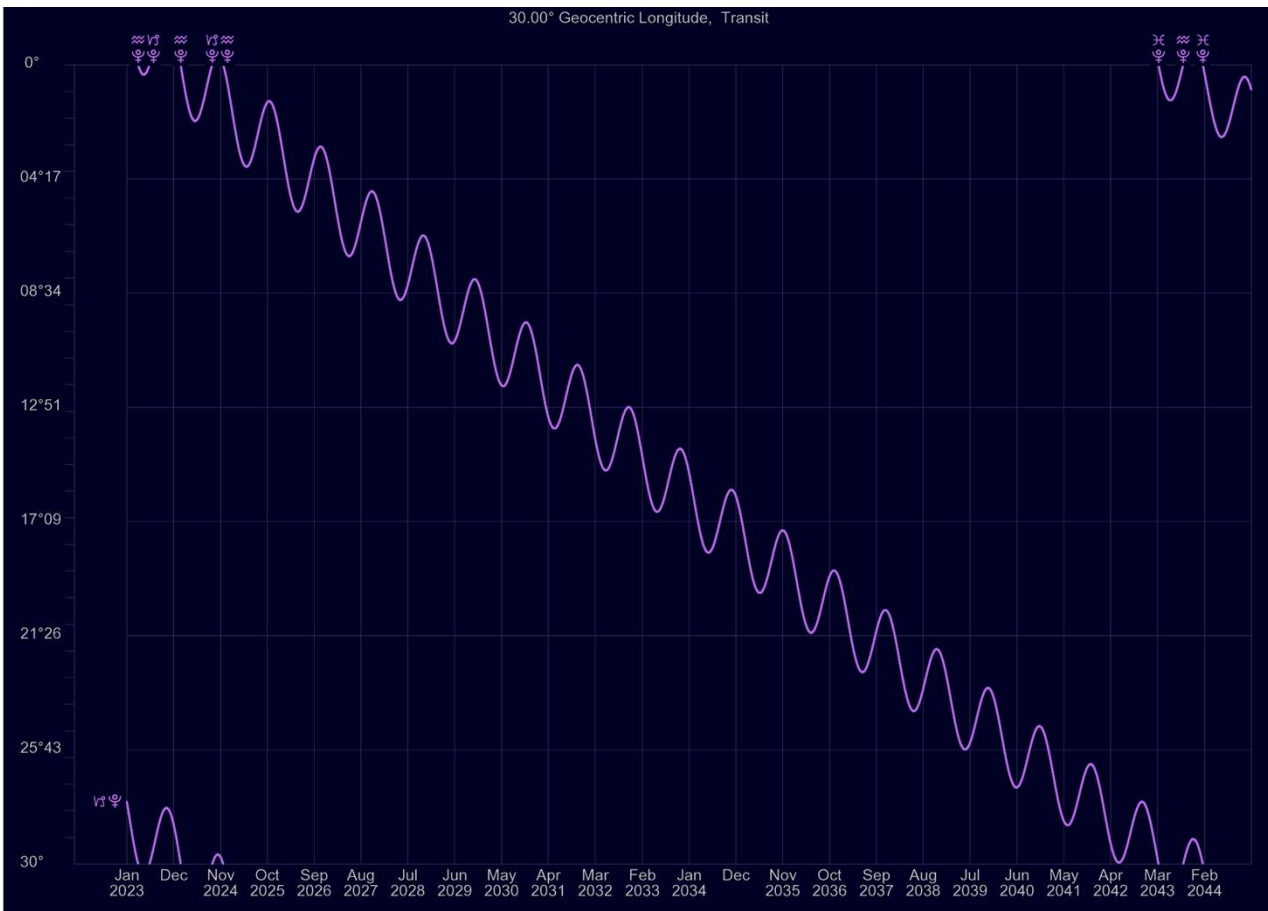

The index reached its absolute century low on March 23 & 25 of 2022, just a month after Russia invaded Ukraine, and that month was the darkest time I've ever experienced in my life. Fortunately, the index is much higher now as the outer planets are separating from one another.

THE JUPITER/SATURN CONJUNCTION OF 2020

PLUTO IN AQUARIUS
2023 - 2044

The shift from earth signs to air signs signaled by the 2020 conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn at 0+ degrees of Aquarius is further strengthened by the time Pluto will spend in Aquarius from 2023 to 2044. This will be period that will see tremendous growth in technology, an increase in alliances and group collaborations of all sorts, and a further shift of power to the people. We're already seeing in America a resurgence of unions.

However, groups can oppress just as easily as individuals can, and we're already seeing some of the dangers related to the rapidly expanding field of artificial intelligence. But these same Aquarian energies may also bring us nuclear fusion in the near future.

Conjunctions of Jupiter and Chiron always bring forth something joyous that endures and that reflects the sign that the conjunction occurs in. Past conjunctions have brought us television, the United Nations, the Beatles, Star Wars, Harry Potter, and the Affordable Care Act in America. The last conjunction in Aries coincided with the filming of Star Wars which portrayed the Jedi Knights as spiritual warriors, and this recent conjunction in Aries was followed the next day by the movie "Everything, Everywhere, All at Once" which brought forth the multiverse as an enduring concept.

On April 8, 2024, there was a solar eclipse where the Sun, Moon, and Chiron were all exactly conjunct at 19 degrees, 24 minutes, of Aries. Many that saw it experienced the joy and awe of Chiron, but many others since then have experienced a year of wounding. Particularly impacted have been America and the Middle East as well as myself (in bed for two months from a back injury).

Israel, Netanyahu, Hamas, and Iran all had planets or midpoints that were strongly activated by the April 8, 2024, Solar Eclipse. Plus, many of the outer planets were close to the same positions they occupied on October 7, 2023. There was a heightened risk of direct war with Iran, and that almost happened, and as expected, there has been terrific wounding in the Middle East, and the conflict may continue for several months to come.

The eclipse was exactly conjunct the Sun/Pluto midpoint in the July 2, 1776, chart for America, and this contributed to Joe Biden's political wounding and the passing of the baton to Kamala Harris. This eclipse was followed by the first of three Chiron returns in 2024-2025, and these returns often manifest in America as political wounding involving a leader such as Richard Nixon or Donald Trump.

King Charles, Princess Kate, and Pope Francis were all directly affected by the eclipse.

And with the conjunction directly opposite my 6th House Neptune in Libra, I was bedridden with painful back problems for two months that were triggered by a long sesquiquadrate of transiting Saturn to my 6th House natal Mars.

On the one hand, the return of Pluto to Capricorn is expected to embolden dictators and political strongmen worldwide from September through most of November. One might also think that this would strengthen a conservative presidential candidate like Donald Trump, but that is not necessarily the case. Since Capricorn is ruled by Saturn, I think it is more likely that voters will gravitate to whichever candidate they perceive as being more in control and able to handle the reins of government. Thus, if Trump is able to convey this image, then he will make gains, but if Harris is the one who appears stronger and more in control, then she will make favorable gains. Pluto will remain in the last degree of Capricorn until November 19, and the last degree often brings out the worst of that sign as its influence is dying to be replaced soon by the influence of the next sign. Hence, I would not be surprised to see a conservative turn from September 1 until October 11, but after that I suspect that people will again yearn for the promise of freedom, scientific advancement, and power to the people that Aquarius offers. And on November 19, Pluto will again return to Aquarius where it will remain for approximately the next twenty years, and it will never return to Capricorn again in our lifetimes.

Mars will be in opposition to Pluto three times in 2024-2025. The first time will be with Pluto at 29+ degrees of Capricorn on November 3rd, just two days before the American presidential election. This could trigger some violence or other ugliness from those who are still holding on to authoritarian models of power. The next two oppositions will occur with Pluto in Aquarius and so the emphasis may be less on violence and more on innovative actions and organized strikes and protests that bring more power to the people.

When back in the 1970s, transiting Chiron was opposite natal Saturn and then conjunct natal Chiron in the July 1776 charts for America, the country was wounded by the Watergate scandal and the actions of Richard Nixon. This time around the country has been wounded by the January 8 insurrection and the actions before and afterwards by Donald Trump. The first Chiron return in this current series took place on April 20 shortly after the momentous April 8 Solar Eclipse. The second Chiron return takes place right after the presidential election, but since transiting Jupiter will sextile both transiting and natal Chiron, we may experience the sweet, joyous, and transcendent side of Chiron more than we do wounding. And the final Chiron return will occur on February 17, 2025.

On November 29, 2024, and January 28, 2025, transiting Chiron will revisit the position it was at during the April 8, 2024, Solar Eclipse, and this could bring about aftershocks of whatever was unleashed during the April eclipse. In particular, there could be issues related the Middle East, America, and the royal family in the United Kingdom. Also, Pope Francis could be affected as well, and even I could be affected. Let's be careful out there!

MARS RETROGRADE 2024 - 2025

Event	Date	Time	P1 Pos	P2 Pos
♂ SR <sub>x</sub>	Dec 06, 2024	04:31 pm	06° ♃ 10' R <sub>x</sub>

Mars will enter the retrograde zone on October 4, 2024, and it will turn retrograde on December 6, 2024. Hence, many issues that arise during this period may be revisited when Mars goes retrograde. At the time that a planet turns retrograde or direct, it slows down, and this will increase the power of Mars to produce either positive action or negative aggression. Also, in the July 1776 charts for America, Mars will be conjunct the North Node at 6+ degrees of Leo when it turns retrograde, and this could intensify its impact on America at that time. On February 23, 2025, Mars will slow down again as it turns direct, and anyone with a planet at 17+ degrees of a cardinal sign could be impacted by this slow down. Also, from February 23, 2025 until Mars leaves the retrograde zone on May 1, 2025, those issues from October 4, 2024, to December 6, 2024, that were revisited when Mars went retrograde, may finally reach some sort of resolution.

URANUS IN GEMINI
2025 - 2033

Uranus will enter Gemini in 2025 and won't leave Gemini for Cancer until 2033. This sojourn through Gemini is expected to stimulate much creative thought that will undoubtedly help fuel the many technological revolutions that are anticipated as Pluto moves through Aquarius. However, between July 2027 and May 2028, America will experience three Uranus returns, and that could signal conflict and revolution either within or without the country.

America has experienced two previous periods of Uranus returns. The first was 1860-1961, the time of the American Civil War, and the second was from 1943-1944 when America was already fighting in WW II and the Manhattan Project to enrich uranium for an atomic bomb began.

NORTH NODE IN PISCES
2025 - 2026

The Lunar North Node will be in Pisces from January 2025 until July 2026. This will not only bring issues of compassion to the forefront, it will also likely benefit Kamala Harris since she has Pisces on the cusp of her 10th House of status in society. Trump, on the other hand, has the transiting Lunar North Node in his 8th House of death, transformation, other people's money and debt, from January 2024 until June 2025.

So far in 2024, Trump has had difficulty fund raising, and courts have ordered him to pay over $537,000,000 in fines and penalties for defamation and other issues.

SATURN & NEPTUNE IN ARIES
2025 - 2026

Both Saturn and Neptune will move into Aries in 2025 where they will form a near conjunction, and on February 20, 2026, they will form an exact conjunction at 0+ degrees of Aries. After spending a few years in Pisces having visions, these two planets will now be ready to enact whatever those visions are. This is also a critical time for Russia since it usually sees major changes during Saturn/Neptune conjunctions.

And it can be a critical time for America since its Civil War began as Neptune last moved into Aries in April 1861.

The most benevolent day of the century will probably be July 21st, 2026, when all of the planets form very close harmonious relationships with others. There may be something very good that happens at this time, or it may be just the seeds that are planted at this time. Nevertheless, children born on this day will be extraordinary!

THE URANUS/NEPTUNE/PLUTO
TRIANGLE
2026 - 2027

What some call a mini-grand trine (Neptune sextile Uranus and Pluto while Uranus is trine Pluto) will be particularly strong in 2026 and 2027, and the sextile from Neptune to Uranus starts in 2025 while the sextile from Neptune to Pluto extends from 2026 to 2032. This will be a period during which higher energies and more transcendent perspectives will make themselves felt. Many, though, will only be subconsciously aware of these energies, but an impact will be had, nonetheless. Furthermore, children born at this time will grow up with a more transcendent perspective just as I did as a result of my being born with a Neptune/Pluto sextile that was only 5 minutes from being exact. Overall, the second half of the 2020s will likely be a very beneficial time for humanity.

Uranus will be in the retrograde zone from May 29, 2027 (5° II 56'), until May 29, 2028 (9° II 57'). There will be three Uranus returns, but the most intense time for America will likely be September through November of 2027 when Uranus turns retrograde at 9+ degrees of Gemini, moves very slowly, and spends an extended length of time in conjunction with natal Uranus at 8+ degrees of Gemini in the July 1776 charts for America. At best, this could be a time of great innovation and invention for America, but at worst it could be a time of war and revolution. Or it could be both.

THE BOTTOM LINE

To sum it up, we have been going through several trials and tribulations since 2020, but the 2020 Jupiter/Saturn conjunction at 0+ degrees of Aquarius was the first indication of a major shift away from materialism to a world where innovation, ideas, and relationships will be what's valued. This shift was followed by another big one when Pluto first moved into Aquarius in 2023, and this will be followed by Uranus moving into Gemini, Neptune and Saturn moving into Aries, the great moment of harmony in July 2026, the Uranus/Neptune/Pluto triangle of 2026-2027, and all the other beneficial aspects that will occur in the latter half of this decade. There are also significant challenges ahead for America, but the bottom line is that we are living during a decade of rapid change and a shifting of values and orientations as we move into the future. Thus, while either candidate could win America's election on November 5, 2024, only one candidate seems poised to lead us into the new future that is ahead. The other appears to want to lead us backward to a time that is rapidly vanishing in order to make way for the new. Either way, change is going to happen, but only Kamala Harris seems ready to embrace that change, and that is why I say that the stars will be much happier with a President Harris than with the alternative. And if Trump wins, I'm sure that darkness will follow.
