Summary:

World

- The Uranus/Saturn/Neptune/Pluto minor grand trine will continue to produce technological advancement, stir up social change, and expand people's horizons throughout the lunar month.
- Saturn conjunct Neptune with a 4-degree orb will continue to dissolve old structures and political ideologies. This conjunction has likely played a key role, too, in the plethora of air disasters this year as the structure of airships that sail the atmospheric ocean has been weakened.
- Jupiter square Chiron will increase in strength throughout the lunar month and could magnify some wounding.
- Jupiter trine Saturn will create good coordination between growth and regulation throughout the lunar month and may make it easier in America for progressives and conservatives to work together.

Summary:

America

- Transiting Neptune square natal Venus will continue to drive discontent among the public regarding the ideological direction the country is taking.
- Transiting Jupiter conjunct natal 10th House Mercury and opposite natal 4th House Moon may continue to expand the executive branch's power at the expense of the American public.
- Transiting Saturn trine natal Mercury and sextile natal Moon can provide a path for the executive branch and the people to constructively work together, but Saturn often works slowly over time. Hence, progress may be incremental.

Summary:

Trump

- Transiting Chiron square natal Saturn will cause Trump frustration and maybe some health problems. However, he will also have even more favorable aspects than usual this lunar month.
- Transiting Saturn trine natal Venus, transiting Jupiter conjunct natal Venus, transiting Jupiter sextile natal Midheaven, transiting Chiron sextile natal Sun, transiting Saturn sextile natal Midheaven, and transiting Jupiter conjunct natal Saturn will all work together to increase Trump's power and help him heal.
- Transiting Uranus square natal Ascendant will continue to make Trump's actions erratic and unpredictable throughout most of this lunar month.
