

THE LUNAR MONTH
NOVEMBER 1 – NOVEMBER 30

REVIEW OF LAST LUNAR MONTH – OCTOBER 2 TO NOVEMBER 1

Again, the previous lunar month went pretty much as expected. It began pleasantly enough with a mostly harmonious solar eclipse, but squares, oppositions, and other hard aspects seemed to only increase as the month went on. Nonetheless, harmonious aspects between Jupiter and Chiron and between Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto strengthened, and more people have been opening themselves up to new and higher perspectives. Thus, around the world, we are seeing more and more people who are tired of war and conflict and climate change catastrophes who are seeking a new way forward. These yearnings will only intensify over the next few years. Unfortunately, in the view of some, a much anticipated comet failed to produce the nighttime show that some expected, but perhaps this was a good thing astrologically as comets have traditionally been seen as heralds of the deaths of kings and princes. In other words, the storms have not been as bad as they could have been.

OVERVIEW – NOVEMBER 1 TO NOVEMBER 30

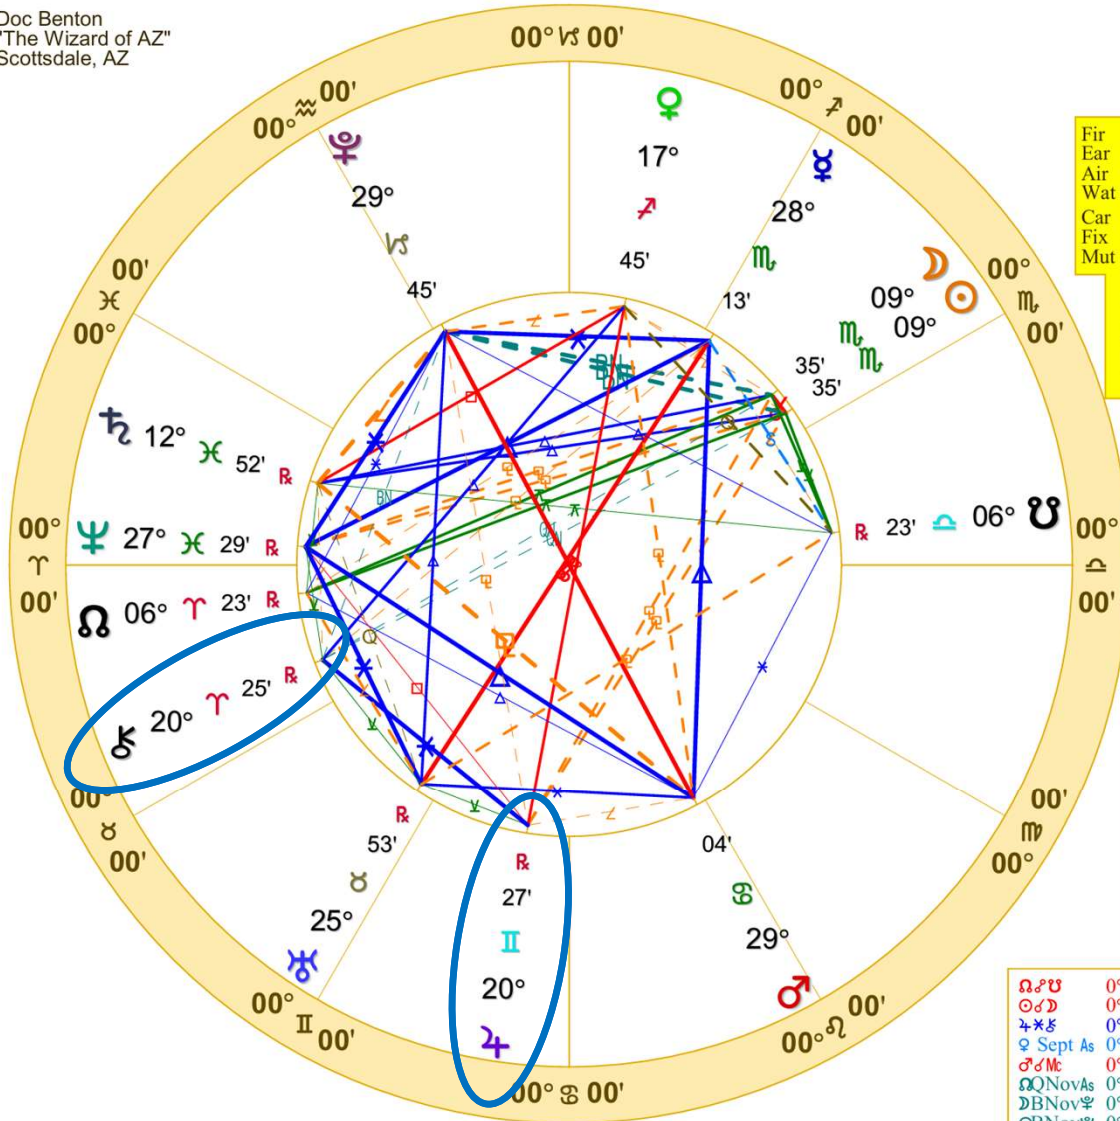

With the American presidential election on November 5, this lunar month will impact not only America but the entire world as well for many years to come. It is a choice between one candidate who is looking forward and another candidate who is looking backward. With Pluto still in Capricorn, many Americans may want to look backward, but with so many of the outer planets currently involved in waxing synodic cycles with one another and with important outer planet sign changes coming up later this year and in 2025, we are definitely not going back to the past and so I would say that the stars favor the visions of the more progressive candidate, whether they get elected or not. Trying to go back to the past will only create more problems in the long run because the world is changing and we can either work with that change or against it. With Mars exactly opposite Pluto on November 3, tensions in America and the world will escalate as the November 5 election approaches and Americans choose who they perceive as their strong savior (Pluto in Capricorn). There are also planetary aspects like Jupiter sextile Chiron and the Uranus/Neptune/Pluto mini-grand trine that are expanding people's minds now and opening them up to new perspectives. And over time, these new perspectives will change everything!
