

THE LUNAR MONTH
SEPTEMBER 2 – OCTOBER 2

REVIEW OF LAST LUNAR MONTH – AUGUST 4 TO SEPTEMBER 2

It was expected that the middle of the month would be very active astrologically, but overall people responded to most astrological influences in the best possible way rather than the worst. For instance, at the start of the Democratic National Convention on August 19, there was a square from Uranus to the Sun and Moon, and that could have resulted in chaos within or without the convention. Instead, we saw within the convention progressive ideas (Uranus) that looked to the future, and outside the convention there were protests (Uranus) that for the most part didn't devolve into vandalism. There was also a square between Jupiter and Saturn on August 19 which could have resulted in a battle between progressives and moderates, but instead we got a good balance of liberal and moderate viewpoints. This all bodes well for America's future.

OVERVIEW – SEPTEMBER 2 TO OCTOBER 2

The aspects for this Lunar Month, at first glance, aren't too bad. Neptune will be making sextiles to both Uranus and Pluto throughout the Lunar Month, and that will bring in a more transcendent energy that all will feel though most will sense it only subconsciously. Additionally, September will see the beginning of a sextile between transiting Jupiter and transiting Chiron that will last the better part of three months, and this will bring out the sweeter, healing side of Chiron and a transcendent joy. However, there will also be a semisquare between Saturn and Pluto that will make it difficult to implement the structure of various visions. Saturn is in Pisces, but Pluto will retrograde back into Capricorn on September 1, and it will remain in the last degree of Capricorn until it moves back into Aquarius on November 19. The move back into Capricorn can represent a resurgence of dictators and authoritarianism, but on October 11 Pluto will turn direct and people will yearn again for power to be transferred from individuals to them. Additionally, there is a Lunar Eclipse on September 17 and a Solar Eclipse on October 2. The Moon of the Lunar Eclipse will be in Kamala Harris' 10th House, and that bodes well for her success, but it will be in Trump's 8th House of transformation, death, and the money of others, and that may not be a harbinger of good times ahead.
