	What you feel is what they want, so feel free to let it all hang out and wear your heart on your sleeve. It's easy to be intimate when your sincerity is treasured and even sought after. When you accentuate the positive, you warm the cockles of anyone who wants to get to know you better, as well as old friends.

You can only do so much with what you've got, but when you take inventory and examine your roots, you'll see just what you've got to build on. Analyze that, then move upward and outward knowing the potential of your foundation.

Chasing down that great idea that got away is a bit like pursuing Moby Dick the closer you get to it, the more it will consume you. When the bird in the hand flees into the bush, let it go and pursue another. When your information is this scattered, you're better off waiting by your net than futilely pursuing a single quarry.

The hunt for objects of desire is in full swing for a few weeks, so expect some very intense satiation all around. It doesn't show much on the surface, but when the doors close and the shades go down, it's all the way - literally or figuratively. Dipping your toe in is not what's happening now, so beware if you try to -- you may be pulled in headlong with the rest.

Still waters run deep, but only when you can get below the surface. The coming month's theme may be probing the depths, or seeming to, while keeping out distracting disturbances. That makes for high intensity when you're inside someone's door, or they're inside yours, but complete mystery when you're/they're not.

Half-formed ideas lack follow-through, you may have to go back to the well more than once before you've got a full bucket of water. Give yourself the time, don't scrimp on planning, and all will come together again.

Overblown schemes can get out of hand, and the best-laid plans may need some revision to get back on course. Nevertheless, the overall strategy is probably still sound, so trim around the edges but don't throw out the baby with the bathwater. Resistance fades as you streamline, then your clear again to fly.

Pressing the point too strongly only leads to arguments, not triumph, so when you catch wind of weak positions strongly defended, pass them by and they will collapse on their own. Confront them, and a Pyrrhic victory is the best you'll get. Rumors of war are just that, born of the breeze and blown away by it.

A good belly laugh satisfies everyone right now, and refined taste is not necessary to make a hit. In fact, nuance may not be much in demand at all, so don't expect you're subtleties to get lapped up. Go for the gusto, along with everyone else, or else sip your sup on the side. Don't knock the slapstick, however, it's still classic.

People will say anything for a laugh about now - and for the next few weeks they'll tend to just say anything in general and then keep talking. Blue-sky blustering is the order of the day, but there's a kernel of truth in some of those free-form filibusters, so don't overlook that fleck of gold gleaming in the pan.

Look before you launch a retort or profess an opinion, as your reactions may not be exactly what's desired by the more critical around you. Fertile ground for your feelings is available, however, if you take care to avoid the rocky patches in-between. Don't waste emotional resources on the unappreciative.

Good information from reliable channels should be all you need to shore you up and keep things in repair. Clearing and cleaning away the cobwebs from your information sources will make sure that when the lines falter, you'll still be in contact. Telling small truths now will cement contacts you can rely on later.

A word to the wise: getting the final word on anything will be virtually impossible, and no matter how tight your argument, loose ends turn up that won't be silenced. Go for the first word, and stick with positive words, but leave the last word for later. When things expectedly get over tangled, your response should be, in a word: enough!

If you want something big, start out asking for something small and work your way up to it. It's easy to connect and swell your bounty if you do it incrementally, one step at a time. When you make the best of what you have, the icing on the cake is provided along with a recipe for another. A slow cooker makes lie especially succulent.

The more ethereal the better for a few weeks, and if you can't quite put your finger on it, that's just what everybody wants. The elusive, mysterious, and hard to get or understand are what's on the general menu, though satisfaction may be hard to find afterward. But just the right taste could lead straight to heaven.

It may be difficult to communicate your inner message, and sometimes trying to explain it to death just makes it worse. If you can't get yourself heard on one issue, drop it and try another. Carping on about the same subject will just get annoying for everyone. Better to be partly understood and leave it at that.

Voracious appetites can be a drain on your energies, so don't give it all away to a single, demanding voice. Be generous, but not to a fault, and share your bounty where it does the most good. Criticism disguised as a compliment also hides self-interest that is not your own. Vampires seldom look like bats, but feed nonetheless.

This must be "growing awareness month," starting at zero for most, so if the general atmosphere is clueless, join right in. It's all about feeling your way, with a lot of counterfeit options crowding around the ultimately real path ahead. You may want it so bad you can taste it, but figuring out exactly how to get it all can be a knotty problem, indeed. The tendency to be too choosy and too critical of what's presented you can kill the goose that lays the golden egg, so if you can't have your way entirely, have it half way and enjoy what's there.

						Passions run high for the next few weeks, with flashes of intense desire suddenly trailing off into satiation or ennui. So if you're looking for intensity, now's the time to jump into the pool - but commitment after you're there may be hard to hold on to. Hunger pangs, once fed, lose their urgency.

Putting the right phrase to the task is not the focus for the next few weeks - so if you're at a loss for words, join the party. But words aren't everything, and those slippery concepts that emerge right now can yet be pounced upon when the time is right, like a cat on a mouse, and nailed to the ground. Just mind your mind in the meantime.

There's sweetness in simplicity in the air, and the good old pleasures haven't lost their appeal. For the next few weeks, you don't need fancy cuisine to take a nice bite out of life, or so the general opinion seems to run. If that leaves you yawning, just wait it out and live on what's around until things spice up.

A yearlong peak of a 12-year cycle of busywork and technical activity can be expected, so be ready to have your hands full for a while. Don't look for landmark strides, but rather clear up the countless details that must be attended to, to make things go according to plan. When up to your neck, take time to eat.

Diminishing returns can mean an energy drain, even when it looks like everybody's in there to help push things along. Repeated attempts to make the job go better can simply tire without accomplishing much. Once you've got it done well enough, leave well enough alone and move on to the next. Energy conservation pays.

Your bundle of energy can get all balled up very quickly if you get into a repetitive rut. Don't drain yourself trying to prove that you've got what it takes -- just do what it takes and be done with it. Last-ditch efforts can put you in the ditch, so don't try to force a finish where it could be your own.

Everybody's going to be quick-witted for a few weeks, or at least will be giving it a try, which means foot-in-mouth syndrome escalates, as people speak before they think. Nevertheless, there's a sharpening of minds that cuts waste and makes for rapid-fire unfoldment of ideas. Follow-through after the onrush will be the challenge.

There's a fairly sudden shift of energy as a month of urgency begins, painting a patina of action and purpose on a previously passive environmental palette. Patience and gestation won't do anymore, time to get up and go - but exactly where to may be the puzzle. Preventing premature detonation while delivering a timely bombshell is the challenge of the month ahead.

A generation-long period begins in which spreading equality of opportunity is a prime cultural force, a time to re-forge society and hand it to the common people. Independence of operation is the order of the day, as is great expansion. The resulting generation, however, will have a hard time holding together what results as a unity.

Chasing down that great idea that got away is a bit like pursuing Moby Dick the closer you get to it, the more it will consume you. When the bird in the hand flees into the bush, let it go and pursue another. When your information is this scattered, you're better off waiting by your net than futilely pursuing a single quarry.

Big, ambitious, adventurous ideas can come barreling in for a month or two, propelled by the urge to boldly go somewhere, but you'd better check your coordinates before beaming down. It might be the wrong universe -- but maybe not. Sensors on.

Where inspiration may have flowed freely before, you will now be tempted to force it when it doesn't spring up on cue. This will only result in creating a number of blind alleys for yourself, so best leave it be, even though the situation may be irritating. Better to save the energy and wait till later.

Your sources of information may fade in and out, like misty clouds passing over the sun, so don't count on having a reliable stream of news. This may come from sheer irregularity or from misinterpretation or misrepresentation of the facts. Basically, don't believe everything you hear right now, but don't stop listening.

According to the latest information, you're on the right track, and if you have faith in your sources, you indeed are. The ability to address forceful solutions and be ready to roll over obstacles sends the message that you are serious and beckons the crowd to part when you pass. Don't flinch and you're home free.

This is likely not your sharpest time of year, and communications can become spotty and fitful. There's interference in the phone lines of your mind, so you may have to repeat your messages several times to get through to others, or even to yourself. Just hack at it, and give yourself the extra time to make it all clear.
