You can't always get what you want, and others can't always get what they want from you, so don't beat yourself up trying to please. Give of yourself, but don't give in to repeating demands when you've done your best. Consider your own necessities before you give in to those who hunger too much.

The next two and a half years are critical for your personal relationships, so make decisions with the care they merit. A time favored for marriages (if unmarried) or divorces (if married), symbolizing personal partnership housecleaning and paring down. You are deciding who you don't want around you.

Good taste is timeless, and relying on the good old ways will pave your way to success. Rely on moves you have perfected, the simpler the better, and your style will be a magnet to what/whomever you want to come your way. Refined elegance beats bluster every time, so come on like the class act you are.

The finer workings of your game plan roll along smoothly and probably get taken for granted if you don't take extra effort to notice them. Cooperation is a given, and if you give it you will get it. No blame, no strain, no pain. Mutual pats on the back let everyone know that all is in sync, so give them freely.

Arguments are likely to cause more ill will than clarity, as circular reasoning simply fuels the fires of debate without resolution. Wait until new light comes.

Small, regular messages through the usual channels can mount up to a big story right now, so listen well pass along what you hear. Don't try to say it all at once, just let the pieces of the puzzle put themselves together until everything is clear as day. There is nothing to hide and nothing to expose, all will be revealed in the end.

Chasing down that great idea that got away is a bit like pursuing Moby Dick the closer you get to it, the more it will consume you. When the bird in the hand flees into the bush, let it go and pursue another. When your information is this scattered, you're better off waiting by your net than futilely pursuing a single quarry.

The hunt for objects of desire is in full swing for a few weeks, so expect some very intense satiation all around. It doesn't show much on the surface, but when the doors close and the shades go down, it's all the way - literally or figuratively. Dipping your toe in is not what's happening now, so beware if you try to -- you may be pulled in headlong with the rest.

Don't try to think too far ahead about how to dole out your energies, or you'll get ahead of yourself. Figure it out one step at a time, don't run full out when you can jog easily along. Plan the next set of laps at every pit stop and all will run smoothly. Conservative planning will assure success.

Faulty information can hang you up, and chasing a false lead can waste even more precious time. Be suspicious of unasked-for criticism, as it may be offered just to slow you up. Better right now to rely on what you already knew and not what you are being told. Turning a deaf ear may be just what will see you through.

The more you underplay the best you have to offer, the more people will want it. Modesty is the best policy and good taste demands small portions, with an option for seconds and thirds. Measured bounty does not exhaust itself and has long-term appeal, so offer up just enough to please but not to overwhelm.

The idea of force is often more compelling than its actual use. You may find that a useful reminder right about now. When you clearly display that you know when it pays to push and shove and when it doesn't, you're most likely to avoid conflict entirely. Revolutions are won in the mind, not in the streets.

A good belly laugh satisfies everyone right now, and refined taste is not necessary to make a hit. In fact, nuance may not be much in demand at all, so don't expect you're subtleties to get lapped up. Go for the gusto, along with everyone else, or else sip your sup on the side. Don't knock the slapstick, however, it's still classic.

Beauty and creativity are at the heart of your plan, and doing it just for fun can be as educational as any formal lesson plan. Follow your desires and immerse yourself in what pleases and you will look and feel the better for it. Moreover, it could have tangible results in ways you had not anticipated.

An even flow of physical energy allows you to be up to doing whatever you want without too much stress and strain over it, but with an emphasis on a deliberate, relaxed pace which does not use up excess energy in bursts. Long-range projects are well-implemented now, as you have patience to spare on them.

Fortune smiles on health and wealth, but a little elbow grease to help it along will double your dividends. Take a free ride when it's offered, but be willing to do your part to make it easier for all. It will do your reputation good to be known as someone who remembers who helped when times were harder.

People will say anything for a laugh about now - and for the next few weeks they'll tend to just say anything in general and then keep talking. Blue-sky blustering is the order of the day, but there's a kernel of truth in some of those free-form filibusters, so don't overlook that fleck of gold gleaming in the pan.

The best-laid plans of mice and men can all go haywire now and then, but dogs and cats who chase their tails always come to no avail. That means the more desperate patches you slap on failing schemes, the more likely they are to fail under the weight of it. Make repairs where necessary, but don't get crazy about it.

If you don't have a mind like a steel trap, you may get shut out for the next few weeks, because linear thinking is for the moment all the rage. Digressions will get you dismissed, even if they're terribly relevant, so save those side roads for the next trip. The skeleton crew of the mind is in charge on this watch.

A continuing and rising demand for your latest concoctions is dependent on your ongoing output. Don't scrimp now -- be a fountain of creativity and optimism and you'll have plenty wanting to come along for the ride. Reward depends on delivery, so make sure you've got lots to distribute on demand.

Great ideas brought on strong that subsequently lose their grip may cause delay and rerouting. Make sure you've got all your ducks in a row before committing to action, even if that means going over it two or three times. First out of the gate is not often first to the finish line, so don't buy the first thing you see.

New Year's resolutions are just part of the getting-earnest style of the next month, where sincerity, business, and sometimes desperation are the drivers which themselves lose steam when the New Year turns out to be just another new year. Pretending deadly seriousness can be a kick, but living it is a drag, so play there, but don't stay there.

Any yarn you spin will likely attract listeners, and the more mysterious you make it, the more magnetic you will seem. Air your dreams and fantasies and you will likely find participants to fulfill them, or at least share your reveries. Use the illusion -- it won't be delusion when you take it to the bank.

Ego and partner issues can mar your reputation right now, so the more you can keep these out of the public eye, the better. Keep your ear to the ground so you don't get blindsided, but don't get into a conflict over your honor. Behave as if you are above reproach, and so you will be. Praise cannot be fought for, only earned.

Groupthink and inclusiveness analysis are very much the mindset for the next month, which can broaden horizons but limit your individuality. You'll do better at least temporarily as a team player, but don't forget yourself in the technocracy of the moment, as when general moorings are lost, you'd best have your own.

More can be less if you're stuck on one restaurant looking for the perfect dish. Conversely, feeding the demands of those stuck on you can be a drain with no satisfaction for either party. Don't insist on perfection, just enjoy the good on life's plate and leave the rest. Overindulging does not satisfy, it only makes you fat.

The more ethereal the better for a few weeks, and if you can't quite put your finger on it, that's just what everybody wants. The elusive, mysterious, and hard to get or understand are what's on the general menu, though satisfaction may be hard to find afterward. But just the right taste could lead straight to heaven.

Keep your pad and pen ready to jot down sudden brainstorms and unexpected messages flashing out of the blue which you will want to remember and respond to quickly. Sudden insights may surprise and even shock, but knowledge is power, so empower yourself. However, don't reveal your revelations, until you impact your options.

Look before you launch a retort or profess an opinion, as your reactions may not be exactly what's desired by the more critical around you. Fertile ground for your feelings is available, however, if you take care to avoid the rocky patches in-between. Don't waste emotional resources on the unappreciative.

When you're asked to explain it for the third or fourth time, it may be time to give up. Brain drainers who want to tap your ideas right down to the bottom of the keg should be put off -- hit that cutoff valve and save some for later. You needn't be rude, just say enough is enough and tell them to come back for more later.

Voracious appetites can be a drain on your energies, so don't give it all away to a single, demanding voice. Be generous, but not to a fault, and share your bounty where it does the most good. Enigmatic and cryptic comments should not be treated with suspicion, as they are probably compliments in disguise. Friendly messages come from obscure places and race, creed, or national origin should not be allowed to get in their way. If you can communicate, even if you're in the dark, open up and do so.

Faith and self-assurance are what will sell you right now, and if you believe in yourself, others will too. Envision the future as you would have it be, and so it shall become. In fact, if you're really good at it, others will do it for you because they will consider it a done deal, an already established fact.

General agreement on what's required means mutual efforts toward gratifying joint appetites. Share your feast and you'll get invited to everybody's party. It's a good time for collecting whatever you want as there's more to go around, at least of what you're interested in. Gracious acceptance creates more giving.

Clear insight into what's holding you together will also inform you of your limitations. You can only do so much with what you've got, but when you take inventory and examine your roots, you'll see just what you've got to build on. Analyze that, then move upward and outward knowing the potential of your foundation.

It's easy for major schemes to become energy sinks by throwing good after bad in an attempt to salvage the plan. Better to sit back and rethink where you're going and see if there isn't an easier way of accomplishing your goals. Enthusiasm wanes when beset by frustration, so be the cooler head that prevails.

Passions run high for the next few weeks, with flashes of intense desire suddenly trailing off into satiation or ennui. So if you're looking for intensity, now's the time to jump into the pool - but commitment after you're there may be hard to hold on to. Hunger pangs, once fed, lose their urgency.

Pressing the point too strongly only leads to arguments, not triumph, so when you catch wind of weak positions strongly defended, pass them by and they will collapse on their own. Confront them, and a Pyrrhic victory is the best you'll get. Rumors of war are just that, born of the breeze and blown away by it.

You may want it so bad you can taste it, but figuring out exactly how to get it all can be a knotty problem, indeed. The tendency to be too choosy and too critical of what's presented you can kill the goose that lays the golden egg, so if you can't have your way entirely, have it half way and enjoy what's there.

Those best-laid plans of six months ago may be losing their focus, and it's hard to see how the big picture really comes together. Half-formed ideas lack follow-through, you may have to go back to the well more than once before you've got a full bucket of water. Give yourself the time, don't scrimp on planning, and all will come together again.

A little fantasy can oil the machinery, and well-meaning flattery will get you everywhere. Quietly shared ideals make for unity, and you don't have to preach to get your point across. It's the little prayers and hopes that keep you on the upward track and are the gentle wind beneath your wings. Share them.

Your bundle of energy can get all balled up very quickly if you get into a repetitive rut. Don't drain yourself trying to prove that you've got what it takes -- just do what it takes and be done with it. Last-ditch efforts can put you in the ditch, so don't try to force a finish where it could be your own.

A moment or two of admiration from the world at large is the order of the day, but it won't last if you don't follow up on it with action and assertive public relations. The general urge to speak well of you needs strong underwriting at the bottom line. Fly your flag high, and everyone will see it.

A generation-long period begins in which spreading equality of opportunity is a prime cultural force, a time to re-forge society and hand it to the common people. Independence of operation is the order of the day, as is great expansion. The resulting generation, however, will have a hard time holding together what results as a unity.

If you don't get what you want in one place, don't try to beat down the door trying to get in. Move on and try something else. Your determination should lie in the search, not fixated upon one entry alone. If one door won't open, the next will -- it's not the door, it's whose inside you need to court.

Messages from home and/or work can be at cross-purposes and straightening them out may require you to step in the middle and mediate. Quicker resolutions, even if not complete, are preferable to endless wrangling. Don't take it personally and don't let it confuse you -- steady as she goes, despite changing breezes.

Say what you feel and feel what you say -- it's easy now and you can do so with little fear of getting into trouble. Conversely, you can better understand what others are trying to tell you at the gut level, so heart-to-heart communication can flourish. Words flow and seem to have more meaning, reach further.

The month ahead is all about pacing, or at least that's the prevailing atmosphere. Making it work and being sure that it's going to deliver, without getting sidetracked or distracted, is the common wisdom. Doing that without getting bored may sometimes be the problem. Common beauty with an uncommon touch is the solution.

Distractions at home or at work can make it difficult for you to squeeze into the limelight, but don't let the conflict seem too obvious. If necessary, put your own personal issues away and take care of business until things are under control. After that, you'll find that everyone falls in behind you.

Ardent feelings are reinforced by spirited conversation and instinctual moves that don't require forethought. Let feelings flow and they will carry you along without your having to step on the gas. Whatever comes out first is probably the most sincere, so don't double-check your reactions, just go with the gut.

There's a bit of an inward shift in what people are asking for, and it's going to get very up close and personal for a few weeks. It's about must-have, not might-like, and about keeping and devouring what's to be had. That can find some fighting for scraps, but when you've got your hands on what you want, the pleasure is to the bone.

Avoid the temptation to sweep out the old and ring in the somewhat untested new. It could be a detriment to both. It would be better to take some extra time to find a comfortable place for both and move on with double opportunity and protection. Where there is conflict, let it resolve itself.

Slowdowns in pet projects and the general workflow can be traced to others who are pulling in the opposite direction. This is not through ill-intentions or contrariness, but likely just misunderstanding and temporary misdirection. It may take some extra energy to redirect traffic, but this too will pass.

It may take more than one try to sell your track record, however reliable it may be. It's really a matter of finding the right buyer with the right needs, and that's an occasional thing at the moment. You may be better off showing off your future potential rather than your past, as times have changed -- move with them.

Sixteen years begins of a culture value shift toward getting business done as if it were a mission. It will create vast wealth, as it will have little to hold it back morally - but the generation spawned by this period will have to redesign the great structures so made in a deconstruction of what went before. Like when cement skyscrapers were first built - they were touted to last longer than the pyramids, but a generation later they began to fall to the wrecking ball.

Where free-ranging conversation may have been the order of the day only yesterday, suddenly it's truth-or-dare which makes people go underground and hesitate to be the first to venture an opinion. An atmosphere of enforced sincerity ushers in a month of raised intensity, higher emotional risk and nervous betting.

You should be pretty much up to speed and moving at an optimum pace; take notes about how you're doing it, so when you're feeling strained later you can revert to your present settings. You are getting the most out of the least, energy wise, and your work is probably reflecting that.

Ego and partner issues can mar your reputation right now, so the more you can keep these out of the public eye, the better. Keep your ear to the ground so you don't get blindsided, but don't get into a conflict over your honor. Behave as if you are above reproach, and so you will be. Praise cannot be fought for, only earned.

Emotional tête-à-têtes are just right for tea time, and sympathy abounds when you leave things unsaid and just go with the feeling. The small things in life give much support and pleasure, and savoring them costs little while giving and receiving quiet joys. Often it is what you overlook that holds you up.

What folks are saying and thinking is a lot closer to their hearts than you or they may think, so verbal sparring can get taken too seriously in the next few weeks. People mean what they say a little too much, and say what they really mean too little. There's a cry over the milk, spilled or not, so speak judiciously, with sensitivity.

You are witnessing a universe around you that alternately confirms and then utterly contradicts your overall life view, a confusing experience that will result in a new synthesis of thought when you sort it all out. The sorting can be puzzling at times, but patient observation will bring the best results.

It may be time to heed the discoveries and inspirations of others, especially when they do not jibe with your own. Nothing educates like opposite opinions, though resolving them into a common vision takes time. Open your eyes now, put your ego on hold and give a serious listen. What you hear now may be part of what you will espouse later.

Expect a more open-handed game to prevail for the next month or so, as spontaneity suddenly becomes refreshing and a little fun and levity is more than welcome after a time of overrated self-seriousness. Previously raw nerves become more tickly and laughter bubbles out when you drop the dread of anticipation and just let it happen.

Pressing the point too strongly only leads to arguments, not triumph, so when you catch wind of weak positions strongly defended, pass them by and they will collapse on their own. Confront them, and a Pyrrhic victory is the best you'll get. Rumors of war are just that, born of the breeze and blown away by it.

You may want it so bad you can taste it, but figuring out exactly how to get it all can be a knotty problem, indeed. The tendency to be too choosy and too critical of what's presented you can kill the goose that lays the golden egg, so if you can't have your way entirely, have it half way and enjoy what's there.

A word to the wise: getting the final word on anything will be virtually impossible, and no matter how tight your argument, loose ends turn up that won't be silenced. Go for the first word, and stick with positive words, but leave the last word for later. When things expectedly get over tangled, your response should be, in a word: enough!

More can be less if you're stuck on one restaurant looking for the perfect dish. Conversely, feeding the demands of those stuck on you can be a drain with no satisfaction for either party. Don't insist on perfection, just enjoy the good on life's plate and leave the rest. Overindulging does not satisfy, it only makes you fat.

For a moment, it's time to think big. Ideas for large-scale plans and optimistic blueprints for futuristic designs are waiting for the drawing board, so pick up on them and take the credit. You can sweat the small stuff later, because if you aren't in on the ground floor, small stuff may be all that's left available.

You can chase your tail trying to get something done until you're totally tapped out, or you can do only what is absolutely necessary and save some energy for later. The temptation is to do the former, but wisdom dictates the latter. Sparks fly like a knife on a whirling grindstone, but the knife is sharp enough already.

Don't be goaded into forcing the situation just to have your way. You may be lured into actions you will later regret, even if only because they are a waste of time. If you can't go around it, go under or over it, or just back away. A struggle will get you nowhere and only tire you out. Be like water, not like rock.

The ability to put nonverbal images into words is a precious commodity, one you can trade on for the moment. Even blindfolded, you'll be able to pin the tale on the dream and speak for others who are not so articulate. The trick will be to remember later how you did it now, so keep an eye on the monitor and watch your performance.

The ability to put nonverbal images into words is a precious commodity, one you can trade on for the moment. Even blindfolded, you'll be able to pin the tale on the dream and speak for others who are not so articulate. The trick will be to remember later how you did it now, so keep an eye on the monitor and watch your performance.

Pushing plans to fruition may not get you there at all, and there's no point in slowing the general rate of progress just to make a point. Good enough is sufficient -- when you're that far, move on to the next challenge. Details fought over now will iron themselves out later, so don't waste too much effort on them.

The tried and true can get a new lease on life if you take the opportunity to spiff up a little.

You don't need to rearrange everything to get the blood flowing and the heart pumping, just put a little extra twist on what you're already doing and put a little English on it. A strong even stroke puts it right down the fairway.

Diminishing returns can mean an energy drain, even when it looks like everybody's in there to help push things along. Repeated attempts to make the job go better can simply tire without accomplishing much. Once you've got it done well enough, leave well enough alone and move on to the next. Energy conservation pays.

The ability to put nonverbal images into words is a precious commodity, one you can trade on for the moment. Even blindfolded, you'll be able to pin the tale on the dream and speak for others who are not so articulate. The trick will be to remember later how you did it now, so keep an eye on the monitor and watch your performance.

Trying to stay on top of things this time of year may have you a little stressed because of extra ego drain. When in doubt, however, just drop out and give it a rest. Too-hot pursuit won't bring you any closer than sitting back, taking a breather, and diving back into the fray refreshed with a new vision.

Your bundle of energy can get all balled up very quickly if you get into a repetitive rut. Don't drain yourself trying to prove that you've got what it takes -- just do what it takes and be done with it. Last-ditch efforts can put you in the ditch, so don't try to force a finish where it could be your own.

Your more conservative side gets a boost and you may find that what and whom you have relied on before is still firmly behind you. You don't have to break the rules to make forward progress, and heaven rewards those who are patient enough to play the game and wait their turn. Well, most of the time, anyway....

Don't be goaded into forcing the situation just to have your way. You may be lured into actions you will later regret, even if only because they are a waste of time. If you can't go around it, go under or over it, or just back away. A struggle will get you nowhere and only tire you out. Be like water, not like rock.

Now is the time to put on your seven-league boots and make major advances along the path of your choice. You have large, swinging energies behind you and you should maximize your gains while the wind blows in your direction. Confidence is your best ally -- if you think you can do it, you can.

More can be less if you're stuck on one restaurant looking for the perfect dish. Conversely, feeding the demands of those stuck on you can be a drain with no satisfaction for either party. Don't insist on perfection, just enjoy the good on life's plate and leave the rest. Overindulging does not satisfy, it only makes you fat.

Messages of faith are truthful, and mutual trust in everyday matters is what great friendship is all about. The sure knowledge that all will be well in the end is the very author of good endings. Know you're right, then go ahead. Words of support are there at your side, along with the information you need.

If you want something big, start out asking for something small and work your way up to it. It's easy to connect and swell your bounty if you do it incrementally, one step at a time. When you make the best of what you have, the icing on the cake is provided along with a recipe for another. A slow cooker makes lie especially succulent.
