

This is the newest chart for Russia following the breakup of the Soviet Union.

The squares that Saturn forms with Pluto and Venus in March will be repeated in July and August and also at the end of the year.

Here's another look at the outer planet transits to Russia in 2022. Again, I'm concerned about Saturn squares as well as intensification due to nodal transits to Pluto and Venus. In other words, Russia will be in a bad mood.

2022

Keep an eye on what happens with Russia in March and April when Saturn squares Pluto and Venus because those issues will probably be ongoing as Saturn squares Pluto and Venus again in July and August as well as late December and early January of 2023.

And here's the standard chart for Ukraine.

There will be several stresses on Ukraine in the coming year, and the next slide shows the periods for each of them.

Lots of stressful aspects. I'm particularly concerned about t. Neptune opposition n. Mars from April through September, and also t. Uranus opposition n. Pluto.

2022

Mars is in the 8th house of death and transformation in the Ukraine chart, and Pluto is in the 10th house of the social environment and status in society. Possibilities, but not certainties, are some sort of violent event (Mars in the 8th house in Virgo) coupled with misinformation or misunderstanding (Neptune in Pisces), or, if things are very positive, then this could also indicate compassionate aid and resources that physically transform the country. Many possibilities even though conflict is what currently looks most likely.
