						Mixed emotions may be the flavor of the day, and trying to sort them out verbally can be a knotty and ultimately unsatisfying process. Half an explanation is better than exhausting dissection of raw nerves, so patch things up as best you can and let circumstances take care of the rest.

Not a good time to invest (or, rather, squander) in anything. It will tend to go awry, supporting the very thing you didn't want it to or backfiring entirely. Rein in your pocketbook and your emotions and wait for a more favorable time to put in your hard-earned what-have-you. Don't waste money or feelings.

A word to the wise: getting the final word on anything will be virtually impossible, and no matter how tight your argument, loose ends turn up that won't be silenced. Go for the first word, and stick with positive words, but leave the last word for later. When things expectedly get over tangled, your response should be, in a word: enough!

The coming year witnesses a shoot-now-ask-questions-later approach to new developments all around, in which the tendency is to jump onto new bandwagons before you check to see if they have wheels. There's a feeling of racing ahead into the future, but to where, really? Catch the tide, but keep your eyes open, ask questions.

If you can put it into words, you'll find someone who wants it, so put it out there and be articulate. Anything you say can find a market if you give it some thought, so put your thinking cap on and start filling orders. A pleasant turn of phrase and a positive attitude is what's in demand, and you've got it.

This is a very important work cycle peak, representing new jobs, new positions, new projects, and new goals developing in the surrounding month that will last for the next two years. Don't wait to refill until you hit "reserve" on your inner gas gauge, it may not be working as well as you think. Figuring out when you're about to be tapped out or have more to go should be left to your body. When you're tired, rest, recharge, and don't push yourself to the limit until you have a more realistic idea of what those limits are.

It may be time to heed the discoveries and inspirations of others, especially when they do not jibe with your own. Nothing educates like opposite opinions, though resolving them into a common vision takes time. Open your eyes now, put your ego on hold and give a serious listen. What you hear now may be part of what you will espouse later.

Settled ways are sometimes the best, and right now your inner routine may be right in tune with the rest of the world. If it ain't broke, don't fix it, just enjoy the way it runs. In the face of a changing world, the little things that remain the same are a comfort and provide reassurance of an enduring foundation.

Slowdowns in pet projects and the general workflow can be traced to others who are pulling in the opposite direction. This is not through ill-intentions or contrariness, but likely just misunderstanding and temporary misdirection. It may take some extra energy to redirect traffic, but this too will pass.

The tried and true can get a new lease on life if you take the opportunity to spiff up a little. You don't need to rearrange everything to get the blood flowing and the heart pumping, just put a little extra twist on what you're already doing and put a little English on it. A strong even stroke puts it right down the fairway.

	Overblown schemes can get out of hand, and the best-laid plans may need some revision to get back on course. Nevertheless, the overall strategy is probably still sound, so trim around the edges but don't throw out the baby with the bathwater. Resistance fades as you streamline, then your clear again to fly.

Keeping on track with the plans you made six months ago may be more difficult that you envisioned, as a general energy and brain drain makes focus and endurance hard to retain. Reformulate where necessary, otherwise do what you can to regroup and stick with the original strategy and get it back on track.

This is the ideal moment to explore and chase away certain fears that have been haunting you. Sunlight on those dark corners does everything to dispel worries that were primarily born of the unknown, leaving time to better cope with real problems. Power moves are available, just be careful forcing issues.

The dance is underway and for the moment, you lead, others follow in pursuit. Strut your stuff and don't stand still, because it's your motion that's getting the attention. You needn't strain yourself -- in fact, it's your fluidity and grace that makes you a magnet. Just move with the music, swing your partner with abandon.

By providing what's needed, you become what's wanted, and you'll be showered with love and gratitude for simply being yourself. Remember that desire is fickle and moves on, so take in as much as you can while the feeling lasts. Absorb the passion of the moment as it comes easily, and remember how you did it.

You can address your feelings very precisely right now and can put into words emotions that have previously eluded expression. When asked, tell it like it is and your arrow will go straight to the bull's-eye. Make sure of your target, however, as you might not want to overwhelm with honesty and reveal all.

The ability to put nonverbal images into words is a precious commodity, one you can trade on for the moment. Even blindfolded, you'll be able to pin the tale on the dream and speak for others who are not so articulate. The trick will be to remember later how you did it now, so keep an eye on the monitor and watch your performance.

The next couple of years will produce the end of many illusions and hard times for those who perpetrate them. Matters of unconfirmed belief are likely to be tested, and those who have relied on intuition alone to get by may have to take a more tangible and practical approach. Real and imagined spirituality are set side by side to see which passes the test.

Don't miss the subtle responses to what you are doing; demand may seem slow, but it's steady and won't let you down. High energy is not the key, you need just enough motion to make yourself interesting and maintain the attention required. Foreplay is as important as the final climax, and essential to it.

Running out of gas on a dark country road is never fun, so it might be well to stick to the well-lit streets of life for a bit, as you may have less to bring to the task and a greater likelihood of losing control of it. This, too, will pass, and with a refilled tank, you can go anywhere you want.

when trying to communicate non-verbally. Just visualize what you want to make known and before you know it you'll be proclaiming it in the most appropriate fashion. Don't over prepare or edit yourself, just let it flow.

Accepting quiet support is the key to getting your way without forcing the issue. Spread the burden, share the load, and lead the way. You know you're right, so others follow as a matter of course, simply because they agree. Even if final goals are not shared, methods are, helping all to move in step.

Everybody's going to be quick-witted for a few weeks, or at least will be giving it a try, which means foot-in-mouth syndrome escalates, as people speak before they think. Nevertheless, there's a sharpening of minds that cuts waste and makes for rapid-fire unfoldment of ideas. Follow-through after the onrush will be the challenge.

You may want it so bad you can taste it, but figuring out exactly how to get it all can be a knotty problem, indeed. The tendency to be too choosy and too critical of what's presented you can kill the goose that lays the golden egg, so if you can't have your way entirely, have it half way and enjoy what's there.

Trying to stay on top of things this time of year may have you a little stressed because of extra ego drain. When in doubt, however, just drop out and give it a rest. Too-hot pursuit won't bring you any closer than sitting back, taking a breather, and diving back into the fray refreshed with a new vision.
